EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Print City is a newly established printing and signage company based in Elk Grove, Illinois, dedicated to delivering high-quality, innovative print solutions for businesses and individuals. We specialize in professional graphic design, small-format digital printing, large-format printing, and a full range of indoor and outdoor signage solutions. Our services are tailored to meet the diverse branding, marketing, and operational needs of our clients, ensuring impactful visual communication and consistent brand representation.

Since our inception, Print City has built a steadily growing client base supported by strong customer satisfaction and repeat business. Our success is rooted in our commitment to excellence, attention to detail, and ability to deliver reliable, timely solutions. By fostering long-term relationships and maintaining open communication with our clients, we position ourselves as a trusted partner rather than just a service provider.

Guided by integrity, creativity, and a passion for craftsmanship, Print City continuously invests in modern printing technology and design innovation to stay ahead in a competitive and evolving industry. Our forward-thinking approach enables us to serve a wide range of clients—from local startups and small businesses to established organizations seeking high-impact, professional signage and print materials.

At Print City, we are more than a printing company—we are a solutions-driven brand partner committed to innovation, reliability, and customer satisfaction. With a strong foundation and a clear vision for growth, we are well-positioned for long-term success and expansion within the printing and signage industry.

MANAGEMENT TEAM

Wajeeha
Razi

Owner/ COO

My name is Wajeeha Razi, and I am the Founder and Principal of Aglow Graphics LLC, operating as Print City, a women-owned commercial printing and signage company dedicated to delivering high-quality, reliable, and innovative visual solutions. Print City was founded with a vision to bring together exceptional craftsmanship, responsive service, and a true partnership approach in an industry where quality, consistency, and accountability matter. Before launching Print City, I gained extensive experience within the signage industry, developing a strong understanding of production workflows, customer expectations, project coordination, and the importance of delivering solutions that meet demanding brand standards. Together with my husband and business partner, Jibran Ahmed, we built Print City around a shared commitment to service excellence, attention to detail, and long-term relationships. Our goal is not simply to provide print and signage solutions, but to become a trusted extension of our clients' teams by offering dependable support, technical expertise, and personalized service. My professional background also includes experience in banking, customer service leadership, and brand implementation, which has strengthened my ability to understand client needs, manage complex requirements, and build meaningful business relationships. As COO and Owner of Print City, I lead our organization with integrity, dedication, and a commitment to continuous improvement. We are focused on growing responsibly, expanding our capabilities, and building lasting partnerships with clients who value quality, reliability, and collaboration. I look forward to the opportunities ahead and to creating meaningful partnerships that drive mutual success.

Jibran
Ahmed

Manager Production

My name is Jibran Ahmed, and I serve as the Production manager of Print City. With more than 20 years of experience in the printing and signage industry, I bring extensive technical expertise, operational leadership, and hands-on production knowledge to our organization. Throughout my career, I have developed a deep understanding of print production, signage manufacturing, project execution, and the operational requirements needed to deliver consistent, high-quality results. My experience includes managing complex production environments, optimizing workflow, implementing quality standards, and supporting signage programs for nationally recognized organizations. At Print City, I oversee our production and operational functions, ensuring every project is executed with precision, efficiency, and attention to detail. From material selection and production planning to quality control and delivery time lines, my focus is on creating reliable processes that allow our clients to achieve their goals with confidence. My approach has always been centered on finding practical solutions, maintaining strong communication, and building lasting relationships through trust and accountability. Being part of Print City allows me to apply my industry experience to a company built on craftsmanship, integrity, and a commitment to customer success. As we continue to grow, I remain dedicated to operational excellence, continuous improvement, and providing our clients with dependable, high-quality printing and signage solutions that exceed expectations.

Digital printing offers the convenience of producing high-quality materials quickly and efficiently, whether you need a small batch of 10 copies or a large traditional run of 10,000. Unlike traditional printing, which often involves lengthy setup times and higher costs, digital printing allows you to print exactly what you need, when you need it, with precision and consistency.

Ideal for marketing materials, business cards, brochures, event promotions, and a wide range of other print projects, our digital printing services prioritize speed, flexibility, and cost-effectiveness.

LEAN MANAGEMENT SIGNAGE

Similar to the 5S program, the 6S system comprises methods aimed at achieving optimal organization and serves as a workplace and serves as a fundamental aspect of Lean manufacturing. The sole distinction from the 5S approach is the inclusion of an additional "S": Safety. The 6 S's serve as reminders for individuals regarding specific tasks while also emphasizing the importance of safety in the workplace by ensuring they wear the necessary personal protective equipment (PPE).

In search of a particular sign? We are here to assist you. We are pleased to offer custom signs at no additional cost.
